Increase the GST rate to meet increased recurrent spending needs	The GST rate will be increased in two steps: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) From 7% to 8% with effect from 1 January 2023; and</li> <li>b) From 8% to 9% with effect from 1 January 2024.</li> </ul>	GST Rate Change 2023 GST Rate Change e-Tax Guide
Update the GST treatment for travel arranging services	The online travel booking market has grown significantly over the years. To ensure that our GST system remains resilient in a growing digital economy, the basis for determining whether zero-rating applies to a supply of travel arranging services will be updated, to be based on the place where the customer (i.e. the contractual customer) and direct beneficiary of the service belong: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) If the customer of the service belongs in Singapore, the travel arranging service will be standard-rated; or</li> <li>b) If the customer of the service belongs outside Singapore and the direct beneficiary either belongs outside Singapore or is GST-registered in Singapore, the travel arranging service will be zero-rated.</li> </ul> This change will ensure that the GST rules accurately reflect the place of consumption of travel arranging services. The change will also ensure parity in GST treatment between local and overseas suppliers on the supplies of travel arranging services. This change will take effect from 1 January 2023. IRAS will provide further details on the changes by 31 July 2022.	Travel Industry International Services

Tax Change	Summary	FAQ/Related Information
Study the introduction of the Minimum Effective Tax Rate (“METR”) Regime	In response to the global minimum effective tax rate under the Pillar 2 Global Anti-Base Erosion (“GloBE”) rules of the BEPS 2.0 project, and based on consultation with industry stakeholders, MOF is exploring a top-up tax called the minimum effective tax rate, or “METR”. The METR will top up a multinational enterprise (“MNE”) group’s effective tax rate in Singapore to 15%. The METR will apply to MNE groups operating in Singapore that have annual revenues of at least €750 million, as reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the ultimate parent entity. The METR, if introduced eventually, will be aligned with the Pillar 2 GloBE rules as far as possible. IRAS will study the METR further and consult industry stakeholders on the design of the METR.
Extend and enhance the Approved Royalties Incentive (“ARI”)	The ARI is scheduled to lapse after 31 December 2023. To continue encouraging companies to leverage new technologies and know-how to develop the capabilities of our local workforce and capture new growth opportunities, the ARI will be extended till 31 December 2028. The ARI will also be simplified to cover classes of royalty agreements based on an activity-set-based approach. EDB will provide further details of the changes by 30 June 2022.
Extend the Approved Foreign Loan (“AFL”) scheme	The AFL scheme is scheduled to lapse after 31 December 2023. To continue encouraging companies to invest in productive equipment for the purpose of conducting substantive activities in Singapore, the AFL scheme will be extended till 31 December 2028.
Extend the Tax Framework for Facilitating Corporate Amalgamations under	To ensure parity in treatment for all companies, including those that are in the insurance business, the tax framework for facilitating corporate amalgamations will be extended to cover amalgamation of Singapore-incorporated companies involving a scheme of transfer<sup>1</sup> under section 117 of the Insurance Act 1966

section 34C of the ITA to Licensed Insurer	(“IA”), where the court order for the confirmation of the scheme referred to under section 118 of the IA is made on or after 1 November 2021. The extension of the framework is subject to conditions, which include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The amalgamated company takes over all property, rights, privileges, liabilities, and obligations, etc. of the amalgamating company on the date of amalgamation; and</li> <li>b) The amalgamating company becomes dormant (i.e. ceases to conduct any business or any other activities, and does not derive any income) on the date of amalgamation and remains so until it is dissolved or wound up; and</li> <li>c) The amalgamating company is dissolved or wound up before the filing due date of the income tax return for the Year of Assessment (“YA”) related to the basis period in which the scheme of transfer was effected.</li> </ul> The tax treatments under the tax framework will apply with modifications where appropriate. IRAS will provide further details of the changes by 31 October 2022. <sup>1</sup> To amalgamate with other licensed insurers, licensed insurers may be required to transfer their insurance-related businesses through a scheme of transfer and hence, cannot transfer these businesses through a statutory voluntary amalgamation under CA. Following the scheme of transfer, the insurers will not automatically cease to exist and will have to undergo the usual process of winding up or dissolution.
Facilitate disclosure of company-related information for official duties	To support data-driven policymaking, operations, and integrated service delivery, the following changes to the ITA and GSTA will be made to facilitate the disclosure of information by IRAS for such purposes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Where taxpayers have provided consent for their information to be shared, IRAS can disclose such information to a public officer (or any other authorised person outside the public sector who is engaged by the Government or a statutory board) for the performance of his official duties.</li> <li>b) In addition, IRAS can disclose a prescribed list of identifiable information on companies to public sector agencies for the performance of official duties. This sharing of identifiable company-related information within the public sector will be conducted without the need for taxpayer’s</li> </ul> consent. Any such information shared will be made less granular by IRAS to preserve the taxpayer’s confidentiality, while remaining useful to public sector agencies. For instance, the prescribed list will include the sales revenue band an identified company belongs to, but not the exact value of its sales revenue. In addition, such information will not be disclosed to any person outside the public sector even if the person is engaged by the Government or a statutory board.

Allow the Integrated Investment Allowance (“IIA”) scheme to lapse after 31 December 2022	As part of the Government’s regular review of tax incentives including their relevance, the IIA scheme will be allowed to lapse after 31 December 2022.
